

Young Professionals' Program – Manufacturing (YPP - MFG) 2022

Salient features :

- One-year structured program comprising class room training and on-the-job training
- Foundation course on bio/pharma manufacturing
- Cross functional/ domain specific in-depth exposure
- Exposure/orientation to international regulations pertaining to bio/pharma manufacturing and quality assurance
- Exposure to Health, Safety and Environment principles
- Rigorous curriculum
- Mentoring program

Eligibility :

- First class M.Sc. degree (biochemistry/biotechnology/chemistry/industrial biotechnology/life sciences/microbiology) or
- First class B.Tech./B.E. degree (biochemical engineering/chemical engineering/industrial biotechnology/biotechnology) or
- First class B. Pharm. degree

Only those candidates who have completed the degree program in 2021 and those who are expected to complete the degree program in 2022 will be considered.

Selection process :

The selection process would comprise a national level on-line admission test followed by personal interviews. Successful candidates will be admitted to the program upon completion of medical check-up and negative COVID-19 test. All successful candidates must provide COVID-19 vaccine certificate before admission to the program.

Compensation : Cost to the company (CTC)

- INR 340,000/- per annum

Leaves :

- Two paid leaves per month (i.e. 24 paid leaves per annum)
- Sick leave will be granted if/when it is required (but not exceeding ten sick leaves per annum).

Future Direction :

- Performance of participants will be evaluated during the program using varieties of parameters/matrices.
- Participants who complete YPP-MFG 2022 successfully securing at least 60% (cumulative) will be considered for employment in Reliance Life Sciences Pvt. Ltd commencing in the beginning of second year.
- A formal process (e.g. personal interview) would be followed for the final selection before the participant is employed.